SUBJECT:—Submission of applications for import of goods under export Promoting Scheme—Procedure regarding.

No. 58-ITC(PN)/58.—Reference is invited to para. 2(g) of Appendix XXIII of the current Red Book wherein it is stated that applications will not be entertained more than once in a quarter.

2. It has been represented that in pursuance of the above provision, Exporters have to accumulate their export proceeds for three months and then only submit an application for import licence in the next quarter. This, it has been alleged, may affect the frequency and volume of their exports. It has, therefore, been suggested that the above condition may be relaxed.

3. With a view to facilitating exports it has been decided that the condition stipulated in para. 2(g) of Part I of Appendix XXIII may be relaxed and applications entertained every month on the basis of exports made during the previous month, if the exporter so desires.
